Story

Oh dear, Rudolf has a cold

He has to stay in bed so how will Santa deliver presents to all the children in the world?

Santa sat down on a rock feeling very worried.

"Humph" said Santa, as he jumped up "I'm going to go find someone else who can pull my sleigh"

He ran as fast as he could and came across a gorilla and asked "please could you pull my sleigh Mr gorilla?"

And guess what Mr gorilla said?

"I can't pull a sleigh; I can't run fast enough"

So poor Santa sat down on a rock and felt worried again!

"Humph" said Santa, as he jumped up "I'm going to keep looking"

He ran as fast as he could and came across a lion and asked "please could you pull my sleigh Mr Lion?"

And guess what Mr Lion said?

"I can't pull a sleigh; I can't fly"

So poor Santa sat down on a rock and felt worried again!

"Humph" said Santa, as he jumped up "I'm going to keep looking"

He ran as fast as he could and came across a puppy and asked "please could you pull my sleigh little puppy?"

And guess what little puppy said?

"I can't pull a sleigh, I'm too little"

By this time Santa was feeling very tired and more worried than ever!

It was so tiring, he had to sit back down on a rock to have a rest.

Oh dear, what is Santa going to do?

He has to go home and tell all the elves that he's not going to be able to deliver presents to all the children in the world this year.

He walked and walked and walked until he got home and guess who he saw standing before him with a glowing red nose?

RUDOLF!

He was feeling much better! The presents can be delivered after all.

Santa was so happy he jumped and jumped and jumped with joy!

Merry Christmas everyone.
