

Raindrop Races

This activity is great for those very wet days.

Show children how the raindrops chase each other down the windows.

Access a large space indoors or outdoors (when the weather permits).

Ask the children to pretend to be raindrops and either roll, run or crawl from one end to the other end of the space.

Eventually they can be teamed up and race against each other.

Raindrop

